MEDALS

First Place Medals shall be awarded to all competitors in entries that post the fastest time in the event-division in which they competed. Special Medals engraved VETERAN, GRAND-MASTER, or COLLEGE-CHAMPIONSHIP, shall be awarded respectively to the fastest Veteran crew in each event-division of the Senior-Master 2x, 4+, and 8+; and the fastest Grand-Master crew in each event-division of the Senior-Master 2x, 4+ and 8+, and the fastest crew representing accredited/chartered Colleges or Universities in each event-division of the Championship 4+ and Championship 8+. Institutions planning to compete for the College-Championship (CC), Veteran, (V) or Grand Master (GM) Special Medals should elect to do so when submitting athlete line-ups. Winners of special medals will not be awarded subordinate medals should they qualify. No special medal will be awarded if the first place medal winner also qualifies for a special medal. Subordinate Medals are awarded as follows: 2nd PLACE in event-divisions comprising at least ten entries, 3rd PLACE in those comprising at least thirty entries, and sth PLACE in those comprising forty or more entries.

With the exception of the Directors' Challenge Quad race, no one, including coxswains, may compete more than once in the Regatta, and all competitors must race in traditional (sliding seat, fixed-rigger) racing shells.

SPECIFICATIONS OF CREW EVENTS:

(Note: ages stipulated are as of race day, in number of whole years lived; sculling events may have separate specifications)

Alumni: Persons who attended the same academic institution (named at the time of entry application) who are not currently enrolled at the institution in question.*

Lightweight: Men: New for 2011 rowers' weights not over 165 lbs.; Women: rowers' weights not over 133 lbs., no averaging. No person (coxswain included) enrolled in high school.

Championship: No person (coxswain included) enrolled in high school.

Men's divisions: Male rowers only.
Women's divisions: Female rowers only.

Coxswains: May be of either sex, but must carry sufficient weight so as to weigh at least 100 lbs. over the entire racecourse.

CREW ENTRIES (Fours, Eights)

CLOSING DATE: September 1st (Any received thereafter will be returned.)

Order of receipt prior to the deadline is immaterial. Crew Entry applications shall be accepted only from institutions from which a completed Institutional Registration Card has been received.

While the names of competitors in sweep-oared entries do not need to be revealed until registration, only bona fide members of an institution shall be eligible to compete in a sweep-oared entry representing that institution. Because of liability in the event of an accident on the race course, any institution which knowingly allows any of its members to assume a spurious affiliation with another institution in order to enable a particular crew to gain entry to the Regatta, or any institution which knowingly allows its name to be used by any individuals who are not bona fide members of that institution in order to enable a particular crew to gain entry to the Regatta, will be subject to sanctions by the Committee.

Acceptance: On the basis of winning a Special Medal or finishing within the top half (based on entries) of the sweep-oared event-division in which they competed the preceding year, institutions are guaranteed entry acceptance into those <code>same event-divisions</code>, provided all conditions of eligibility, deadlines, fees, etc., are met. If a guarantee was earned in a Club event-division, such guarantee may be transferred, at the time of entry application, to the same division (Men's/Women's) and boat type (Fours/Eights) in another sweep-oared event. Institutions planning to compete for the <code>College Championship</code> (CC), <code>Grand Master</code> (GM), or <code>Veteran</code> (V) Special Medals should do so when submitting athlete line-ups. Final eligibility will be determined at registration.

In addition to such 'guaranteed' entries, an institution may apply for up to four additional sweep-oared entries in men's event-divisions and up to four additional sweep-oared entries in women's divisions with the following restrictions: A. Institutions may submit only one non-guaranteed entry per event-division and these may not be ranked; and B. Including guaranteed entries, an Institition may have no more than three entries in one event-division. Except for Charity Program entries, and except for variances, which only the Managing Directors may grant, a blind draw from among the applications in each event-division shall be used where necessary to determine the final entry acceptances into each sweep-oared event-division. The draw will take place in early September. As compensation for providing operational assistance to the Regatta, the Managing Directors may grant the acceptance of one extra (but "non-point earning") entry to each of a limited number of local institutions into the sweep-oared event-division of the institution's choice.

Entry Withdrawal Deadline and Penalties: The deadline for withdrawing an entry is October 1St. No refund will be given for withdrawn entries. Institutions that fail to notify the Regatta of their withdrawal from, or inability to compete in, a sweep-oared Eventivision by October 1St shall not be eligible to compete in that particular Event-division in the following year's Regatta. The Regatta will replace withdrawn entries by offering entry to the next applicant or crew on the waiting list (based upon the original blind draw) for the same event-division. No crew may contain an individual who remained entered in any sculling event after the October 1st withdrawal deadline.

Seeding/Starting Order: An institution which has an entry accepted into a Crew event-division in which it properly competed the preceding year will start ahead of all new entrants in that event-division and will be seeded according to its finishing position in that event-division the preceding year. The Regatta reserves the right to make exceptions to the seeding policy.

Please Note: All non-guaranteed entries are subject to a random draw in early September.
